COMMERCIAL.

Bullion.

New York, May 9.—Bar silver, 94 3/4.

Money Market.

NEW YORK, May 9.

Money—4@5.

LATER.

Money on call, easy, 3@5; closed offered 3.

Prime mercantile paper—5@6. Sterling exchange—Dull, steady; 4.85% for sixty day bills, 4.87 for demand.

New York Mining Market.

New York, May 9.—Mining shares were quiet, closing as follows: Amador $1.70, Best and Belcher $2.50, Caledonia (Back Hills) $1.15, Deadwood $1.10, Stanislaus $2.55, Security 6.50, Sutro Tunnel 20c.

The stock market, to-day, was dull and nearly featureless. A variety of causes, including the inexplicable bank statements, the anxiety still remaining in regard to the effect of the inter-state law, and the election of Stock Exchange officers, which occurred to-day, contributed to this effect. Fluctuations were unusually low, even for a dull day. London was a moderate buyer, early in the day. The sensation of the day was furnished by a drop of something over 8 per cent. in Fort Worth & Denver, only a small portion of which was recovered toward the close, by a settlement with the shorts, and the pool in the stock is believed to have disbanded. Wheeling & Lake Erie was also remarkably weak. The reduction in sterling exchange was an element. The opening was steady, the first prices being either unchanged or only insignificant fractions different from Saturday's final figures. The general market was about steady till noon, after which it became firm, although affected somewhat by the drop in Fort Worth, which occurred at that time. There was a steady, though light, appreciation of the values toward the close, and the market closed dull, but firm. The majority of stocks are small fractions higher, this evening, but Fort Worth & Denver is down to 5 3/4; Wheeling & Lake Erie 3 3/4, and Rock Island 1/4 per cent. Government and State bonds were dull and steady to-day.

New York Stock Exchange.

New York, May 9.—The stock market opened steady, first prices being almost unchanged.

New York General Markets.

New York, May 9.—Hops, quiet; unchanged. Coffee, spot fair; Rio, 17 1/4; options higher, active; closing weak.
